Festival - Eid

Eid falls after the spiritual month of Ramadan of Muslim Calendar. On this day everyone gets up early in the morning before sunrise, take shower and go to Mosque to offer prayers.

This day encourages to forget and forgive all the conflicts and fights. Children of the family take blessings of the elders.

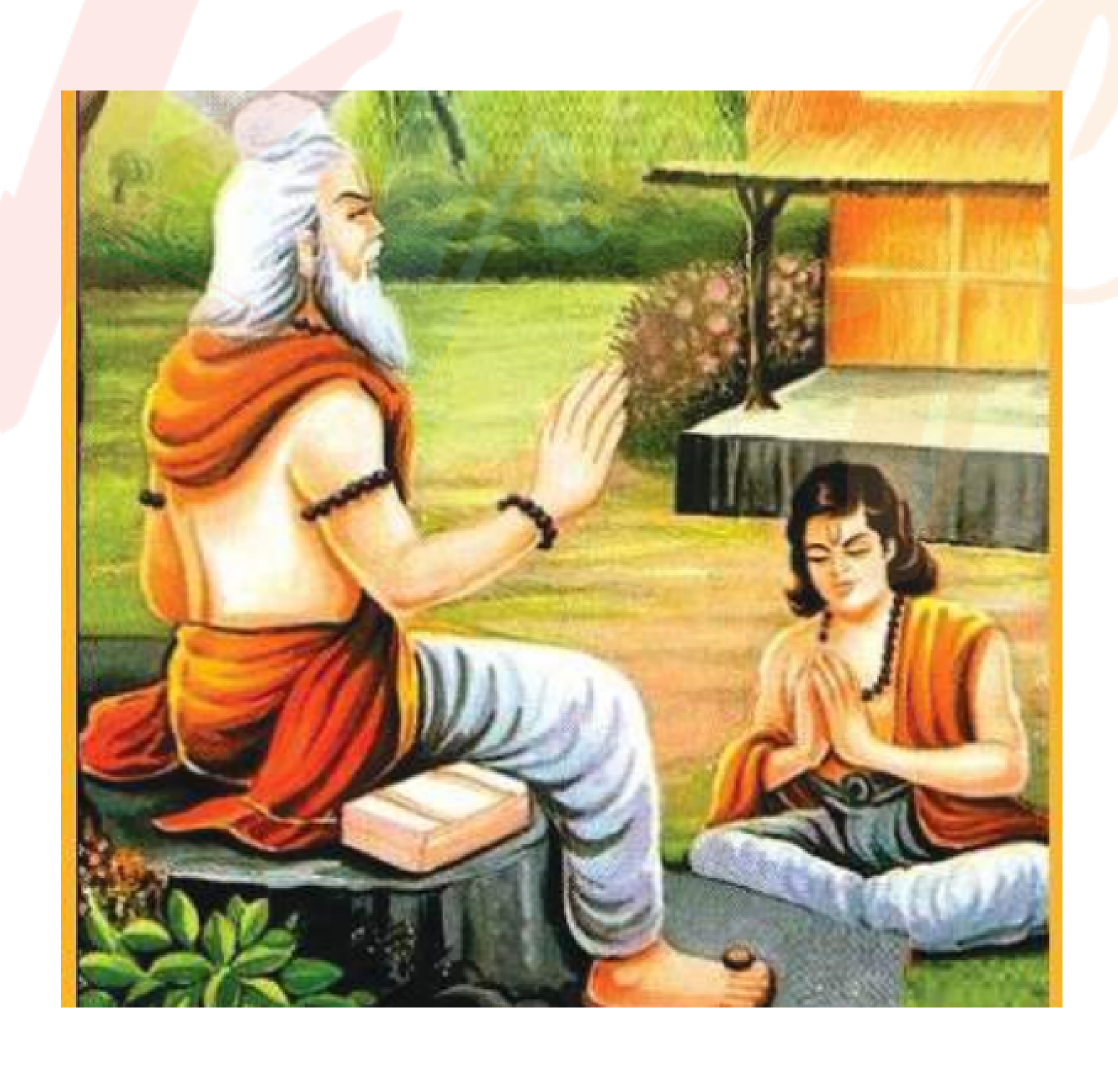

Friends and Relatives visit home and a feast is hosted which consists of delicacies like Sheer Korma, Seviyan, Biryani .

Festival - Guru poornima

Guru Poornima is the day when we celebrate goodness of all our teachers and gurus.

On this day we take blessings from our teachers.

Festival - Ashadhi ekadashi

Ashadhi Ekadashi is the most important Ekadasi vrata observed as first Ekadashi.

It falls on eleventh day in bright half of Ashad Maas. Ashadhi Ekadashi is more of a religious procession festival and is celebrated during the months of June- July (Aashaadh Shukla paksha).

Ashadi Ekadasi marks the celebration of Pandharpur Palki Yatra in Vithoba Temple in Maharashtra. 17-days long Ashadi Waari Palki Yatra concludes on Ashadi Ekadasi day in Pandharpur Vithal Temple.

Story

The dove and the ant

On a hot summer day an ant was drinking water in a lake and fell inside a lake. A dove saw ant falling in the water. The dove quickly threw a leaf to save the ant.

The ant climbed on the leaf and came out of the lake safely. A few days passed and the ant saw a hunter who was about to kill the dove.

The ant bit the hunter's leg hard and hunter missed his aim and the dove flew away.

Moral of the story is:
The good things you do come back to you.
